IN this year's "Quiver" we have tried to depict the three seasons of the year which are of most interest to you during the school year. Namely: Autumn, Winter, and Spring.

The book is divided into three sections, each representing one of these seasons. We hope that in future years, the following pages will recall your school year of 1936-37.

IN the beautiful warm days of early September we start another year of school. Our eyes are turned with interest to the faculty and to the sophomores. To the faculty, because they play an important part in preparing us for the coming year. To the sophomores, because they are new to Harding and Harding is new to them. The entire student body is interested in their progress.

The days grow shorter and cooler. The leaves fall from the trees and the scene changes from Fall to Winter. But we do not object, for although we love Autumn, Winter brings with it new activities which absorb our time. Our thoughts turn from the teachers, who have started us forward, and the sophomores, who have become adjusted. Thus our interests face new things: juniors and winter activities.

Once again the scene changes. The snow melts and flowers, leaves, and grass begin to show themselves. Once again our interests shift. This time it is to the seniors, who are "finished, yet beginning."

WE HONOR

JAMES H. SMITH

James H. Smith, teacher of physics and higher arithmetic at Harding, has been the student's friend and advisor at all times.

He is eager to assist, not by performing the work himself, but by making the way clear for the student to go forward, thinking for himself. He has instilled in them a sense of experiment. He is genial, sincere, and possesses a fine understanding of human problems.

For these virtues and many others too numerous to mention in this small space, to you, Mr. Smith, we dedicate this book.

WE CHERISH

We have been told by our elders that high school days are the most exciting of our lives.

During our freshman year we attended one of three schools: Vernon, Central, or Edison. To these we were loyal. We had our competitive basketball teams and were, in a sense, enemies. Then we came to Harding. At first, we were hostile toward each other, but this soon was lost as we became bound together by common interests: football, basketball, clubs and classes. We met other people and made new friends, some of them our dearest.

For these and many other things, Dear Harding, we cherish thee.

AFTER the first few days of becoming reacquainted with our friends whom we have not seen all summer, we are once again caught in the regular routine of studies. To the juniors and seniors, the school life is similar to that of the previous year. To the sophomores, it is new and exciting. They have never been to Harding and some of them are not sure what it all means. So for them the first few months are spent in getting acquainted with the teachers, fellow students, and ways of the school.

Underlying all the excitement and worry of the sophomores is the hustle and bustle of reorganizing the clubs. It is during these fall days that Mr. Marshall's voice comes over the public address system to announce that all those who wish to join a certain club should meet in west hall immediately after school. Here it is that the teachers, as sponsors of the different organizations, aid the officers in bringing peace and order out of chaos.

Outside school, too, the students are occupied with social activities. There are skating parties and bicycling to absorb much of the time.

Thus the first section of the "Quiver" is devoted to teachers, sophomores, and fall activities.

SOPHOMORE HISTORY

WHEN the sophomores entered Harding, they felt restrained. They arrived from Vernon and Central, where they had been the freshmen and had ruled supreme. Here they are just sophomores.

The officers at Central were: Jack Zeisler, president; Robert Pick, vice-president; James Todd, secretary; and Rollin Beach, treasurer. At Vernon they were: Roy Abel, president; and Glen Gifford, treasurer.

Extra curricular activities at both schools included Girl Reserves, Torch Clubs, and Dramatic Clubs. Miss Zelma Howard sponsored the dramatic club at Central which presented several plays during the year. She also produced the freshman plays, "The Princess" and "The Initiation."

Miss Ackley directed the Vernon freshman plays, "Orchids for Marie," "Six Cups of Chocolate," and "Honeymoon House." The Dramatic Club was sponsored by Miss Wetterauer and Miss Ault.

And now, at Harding, they have merged. They have become one class. For their leaders this year, they chose Jack Zeisler for president; Weldon Metz for vice-president, Dorothy Bechtle for secretary, and Dana Kirts for treasurer.

THROUGH drizzling rains, brilliant sunshine, and crisp, cold days, we follow our football team. Not always to victory, perhaps, but when we lose, it is with a smile and congratulations for the opposing team.

Yes, we follow our team, but some of us do not see much of the game. Oh, we cheer and sing the school song and in outward appearances are interested but on the sly we look about to see who is with whom and what everyone is wearing. We become intensely interested when we yell "hold that line" or "block that kick."

In the fall of the year, our thoughts are not entirely absorbed by football. There are many other extra curricular activities. The Girl Reserves are recognizing new members and the Hi-Y is reorganizing and electing officers.

FALL ACTIVITIES

HARDING'S 1936 football season was launched September 19 when the team, accompanied by many fellow students, met the Delaware Willis' eleven at the Delaware stadium. Although the season was opened no score was chalked up. The struggle ended in a scoreless tie.

Coach Carl Cramer, who was entering his second year at Harding, had led the squad through strenuous exercises for two weeks before school commenced in September.

Mount Gilead was the first home guest of Harding September 26 at which game Harding's first victory of the season was scored. Many games were played at night under the newly installed flood-lights. The managers, John Wilhelm, Jack Creviston, Vincent Wise, John Rhea, and James Andrews were invaluable to the squads and coaches.

A group of cheerleaders were organized by Mr. Faust who taught them cheers and formations. Enthusiasm of spectators and squad was boosted high by this group and by the band under the direction of Mr. Homer Huffman. Richard Clarke and Lowell Jones led the band.

The season was ended at Mount Vernon, November 14.

TRI-HI

A recognition Service was held for new members December 3. At Christmas time, each group performed some worthy project. The crafts group united with the Hi-Y in giving a party to a group of children from the Marion County Children's Home.

The patriotic month of February was celebrated by a sport dance in the gymnasium. The decorations carried out a patriotic theme in red, white, and blue.

The Hi-Y and Girl Reserves united to sponsor the pre-Easter services and the Easter sunrise service at the Presbyterian Church.

The Edison gymnasium was the scene of the Girl Reserve spring dance, May 1. A maypole was set up in the center of the floor. The pastel streamers of the pole formed a canopy.

The incoming officers were installed May 13.

To earn a Girl Reserve ring, any Girl Reserve who has been a member of the club two years may join this group.

This year, the members received a better understanding of the symbol on the ring by completing three "guide posts." These were a perfect body, a keen mind, and a Christ-like spirit. These are symbolized by the three sides of the triangle on the ring. The circle enclosing the triangle represents the unbroken circle of friendship of Girl Reserves around the world.

Meetings were held every two weeks at which the members reported their progress. Dorothy Peters was student sponsor.

The rings were presented to the girls by Mrs. E. G. Seifert at the Central Christian Church, April 25.

The Props and Q's is one of the newer clubs at Harding. This organization, with Miss Dorothy Hanson as faculty advisor, gives each member the opportunity to participate in the kind of dramatic activities he desires. The programs presented twice each month included short plays, readings, pantomimes, and discussions of plays.

A Christmas play, "Christmas Roses," was presented in an assembly program. April 21, Richard Ehrick, William Scott, and Harold Stafford won pantomime contests.

PROPS & Q's

The presence of the band at football and basketball games served to boost the spirits of players and spectators alike. Richard Clarke, drum major, was assisted by small Lowell Jones, mascot. Homer Huffman is supervisor of instrumental music.

May 7 and 8, they took part in the "Band Festival" at Bucyrus. The music for the "May Day" demonstration was furnished by the band.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra, under the direction of Homer E. Huffman, experienced a full year of activities. The members met twice each week for practice.

Several concerts and assembly programs were prepared. The orchestra played at Vernon, Central, and Edison to stimulate interest in instrumental music among the students.

The orchestra also presented several selections between each scene of the senior play, "Victoria Regina."

THE clear, cool days of Autumn fill us with exhilaration as we rush about becoming readjusted at school. The leaves, which were green on the first day of school are soon changed to the beautiful fall colors. Then, the trees are bare, stripped of their beauty. Although that change does not occur rapidly but, rather, happens gradually, we are surprised to see the first snowfall. Surprised, yet happy, for winter is now officially here.

Winter opens new activities to us. Sports change. Football is left for the faster and more exciting basketball. Roller skates are packed away in the basement and ice skates brought out. Large snowmen with brooms in their arms are seen here and there.

The temperature outdoors has fallen many degrees, but inside is warmth and feverish excitement of busy days. The winter activities are begun with a zest.

JUNIOR HISTORY

The Junior Class of Harding has been very active in extra curricular activities during their three years of High School. While they were freshmen of Vernon Heights and Central Junior High Schools, they were engaged in all of the major athletics and in the Torch Club, Girl Reserves and Dramatic Clubs.

"Home-Coming" was held at Central, celebrating the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of Marion schools. Members of the Vernon citizenship class edited a handbook, the first one to be published in Marion's junior high school history.

"Thanks Awfully," "Dad," and "The Violin Maker of Cramona" were the three one-act plays presented by the freshman class at Central under the direction of Miss Zelma Howard and Mr. Raymond McNutt.

When they entered Harding as sophomores, they were inconspicuous. For their leaders they chose: Roy Stout, president; Thomas Mullett, vice-president; Mary Virginia Long, secretary; George Griffiths, treasurer.

This year, as a junior class, they presented the three-act comedy, "Growing Pains." Miss Dorothy Hanson, speech and English teacher, directed the play.

EDISON HISTORY

The activities at Edison junior high are numerous including the Commercial Club, under the direction of Miss Josephine Haley; Hi-Y with Chester Hannahs, Raymond McNutt, and Alvin Bippus as leaders; the G.A.A. under the guidance of Miss Isabel Uncapher presenting the first May Festival for the school on May 20 and crowning Virginia Thaxton as queen; and the Girl Reserves who sponsored the benefit show, "Hoosier Schoolmaster." The proceeds were used to supply new books in the Library. Miss Margaret Watrous and Miss Mary Jo Stafford are sponsors of the senior Girl Reserves and Miss Mary Ann Archer and Miss Elizabeth Martin of the junior Girl Reserves. Library Council is headed by Miss Ethel Garn. Miss Garnet Nagel has charge of the Se-Co Club and the Catering Club. The Science Club has had scientific speakers and demonstrators secured by their leader, Mark Baker.

The sophomore class presented three one-act plays: "Two Crooks and a Lady," "Not Quite Such a Goose," and "The Man in the Bowler Hat," and the juniors presented "Kempy." These plays were directed by Mr. Alvin Bippus and Miss Mary Jo Stafford.

Mr. Homer E. Huffman, supervisor of instrumental music in the Marion schools, organized Edison's band.

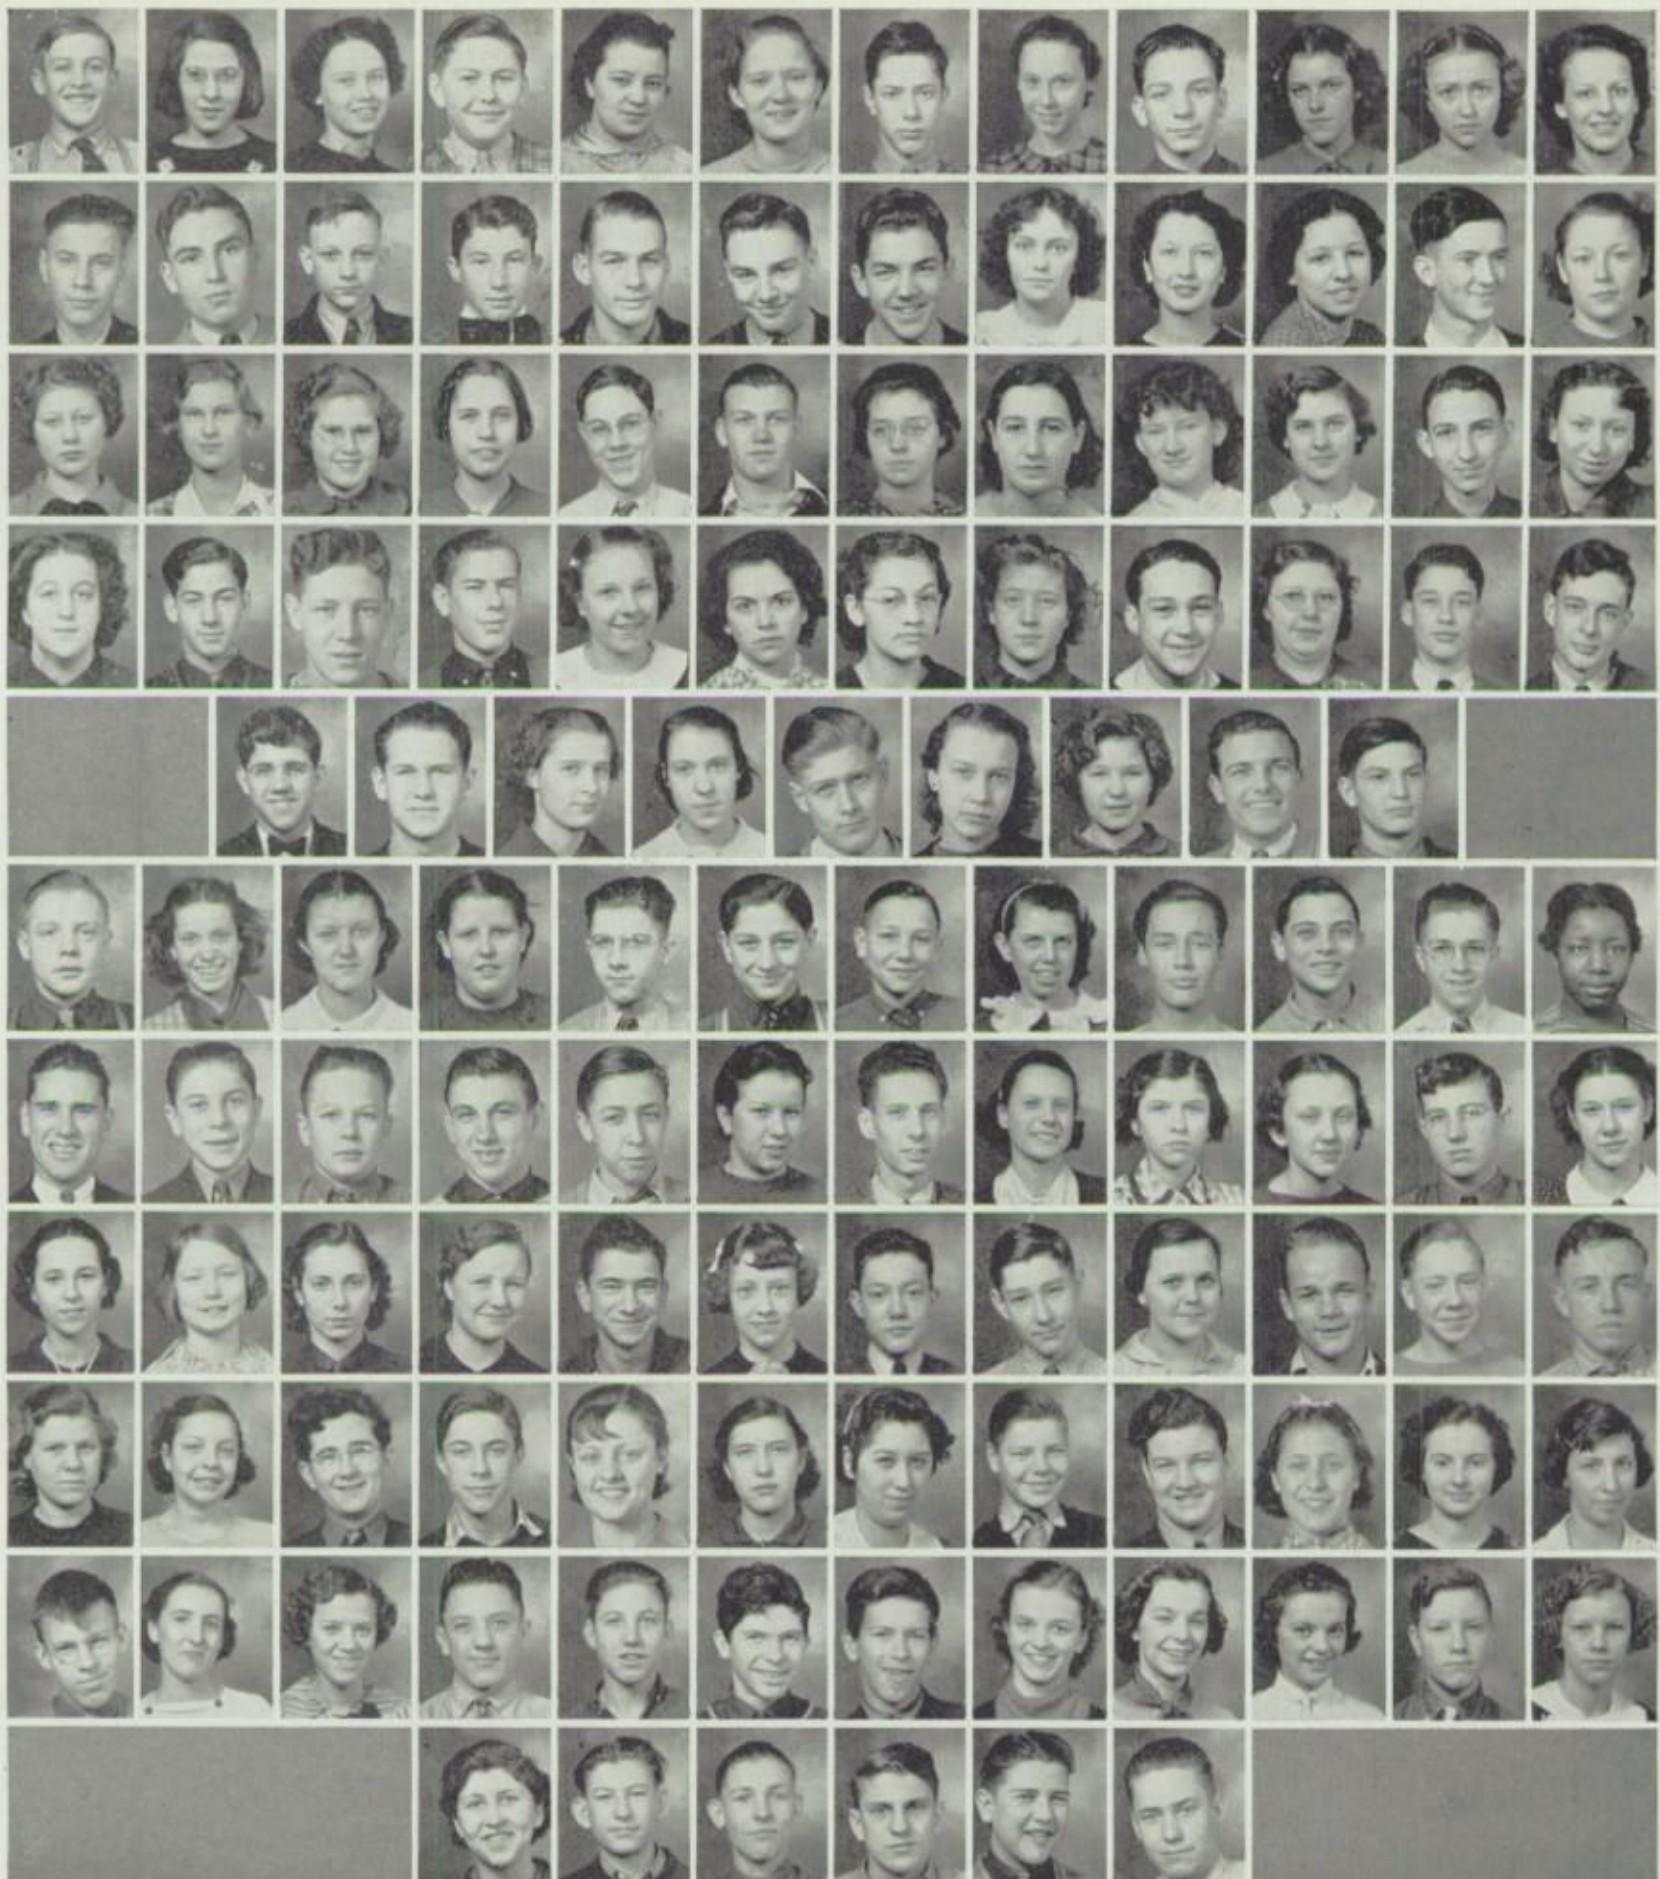

A bi-monthly student publication was a new feature this year. Flora Brewer acted as editor assisted by Robert Lewis and Jean Harruff. Warren Cyders was business manager and Clarice Marshall and Irvin Brithaupt were art editors. The faculty assistants to the staff were: Misses Rosanna Crow, Mary Ann Archer, Garnet Nagel, Josephine Haley, and Mary Jo Stafford.

Arrangements for the sophomore-junior banquet May 21 were made by Miss Trolla Klopfenstein, Miss Josephine Haley, and Mr. Alvin Bippus.

This year, the officers of the junior class were: Richard Fogle, president; John Williams, vice-president; Evelyn Mark, secretary; John Fletcher, treasurer.

The sophomore officers were: Robert Lewis, president; Robert Wills, vice-president; Delores Ians, secretary; Dorothy Haberman, treasurer.

SON

AMONG the students in winter, basketball is supreme. On clear, cold evenings, many Harding students display loyalty and school spirit by following the team.

The juniors, that intermediate class, are being noticed now. The sophomores have become acquainted to Harding and have lost their novel air. Thus it is that the juniors have a chance to prove their worth.

The numerous organizations are in full swing. Their social activities have begun and students are rushed to attend the meetings and social functions.

Edison Junior High school has reorganized old clubs and formed new ones. With producing junior and sophomore plays, publishing the school newspaper, and attending clubs, the teachers and students were busily engaged.

WINTER ACTIVITIES

BASKETBALL

Coach Dewey N. Bohyer, working with a team that included only two lettermen, prepared the team for a strenuous season. The schedule included seventeen games.

The 1936-37 basketball season was opened December 4 at the Steam Shovel Gymnasium with a victory over Upper Sandusky.

The team traveled to Mt. Vernon to meet their first North Central Ohio League opponent of the season. They scored a victory which was an incentive that was strong enough to carry them to the semi-finals at Delaware.

G. A. A.

The Girls' Athletic Association, sponsored by Miss Rachel McAfee, is composed of those girls taking gymnasium work providing they live according to certain health rules. This club produces healthy students who spread health habits among others.

The girls met twice a week for sport meeting or supervised play. Occasionally a sport meeting was replaced by a tea dance.

At Christmas time, the G.A.A. sponsored a "white Christmas" for needy students and their families.

DEBATE

Resolved: that all electric utilities should be governmentally owned and operated. That was the question. This subject was debated throughout the state.

Coach Thomas D. Bain divided the group into four teams consisting of two speakers each. Negative teams: 1. Josephine Frank and Tom Mullett. 2. George Deigle and Owen Meddles. Affirmative teams: 1. Margaret Hufford and John Imbody. 2. John Grimes and Harold Stafford.

Tom Mullett was captain of the negative side and John Imbody captained the affirmative side. The Harding debate teams competed in interscholastic debates.

Miss Etta Jacoby, librarian, had many able assistants this year. Some had previously worked in the library, but many were new.

They assisted students who wished to use the library, and through the sale of candy and klondikes, provided the money for purchasing many books.

Council meetings were held every two weeks, at which programs were presented for the entertainment of the members. The librarians held a picnic near the end of the school year.

MEMBERS:

LIBRARY COUNCIL

The glee clubs and chorus of Harding give the student an opportunity to work and associate his voice with others. Diction, tone quality, blend of voices, breath control, and various other fundamentals are studied. Mr. L. G. Jones is supervisor of vocal music.

These organizations furnished several assembly programs for the school during the year.

In the Eisteddfod held April 30, in which Lima Central, Kenton, Mount Vernon and Harding competed, the Harding clubs won second place. They also took part in the "Music Festival," May 4, 5, and 6, at Central Junior High school.

There were two Girls' Glee Clubs—A and B. The A club met two periods each week. The B club met only one period a week.

MEMBERS:

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

The Boys' Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Jones, is also divided into two groups—A and B.

About sixty of the more advanced members of the glee clubs make up the Mixed Chorus. In December, the Mixed Chorus prepared a Christmas cantata, "The Christ Child," which they presented in two school assemblies and at the Methodist Episcopal Church, Sunday evening, December 20.

THE QUIVER

MEMBERS:

Mildred Zachman was chosen editor-in-chief with Mary Louise Hume as her assistant by Miss Lucile Foreman, faculty advisor. Assisting in the presentation of the year book were the following: Richard Olewiler, advertising manager; Mr. John Gries, faculty advertising manager; Frank Roberts, business manager; Mr. E. H. Shade, faculty business manager; John Wilhelm, sports editor; Josephine Ruth, photograph editor; and Dale Schmidt, circulation manager.

The production of a year book involves much pleasure combined with a quantity of work and worry. It is not prepared and published by one person but by the cooperation of many. This year's "Quiver" was no exception. The Quiver staff met the problems as they arose and, with the aid of the journalism students, published this book.

This year we have tried to bring you the unusual. We have published an informal book to which you may turn as a reference book for your school year of 1936-37.

As in the case of a year book, the weekly school publication carries many worries along with its joys. And, similarly, it cannot be produced by one person but through the combined efforts of many. The Herald staff is aided by the news staff composed of the Journalism classes.

The two editors, Eloise Coffman and Robert Wetzel, issued the paper alternately. Approximately 500 students received a copy of the "Herald" each Friday. Miss Foreman is faculty advisor.

MEMBERS:

THE HERALD

The Press Club is that group which made possible each week the school newspaper, "The Harding Herald." This publication is a means of education and entertainment for the members of the club.

The news of school activities, original columns, and poems are contained in the "Herald."

Miss Lucile Foreman is the sponsor of this club.

MEMBERS:

PRESS CLUB

MERRIE PLAYERS

Ye Merrie Players is composed of the members of the cast and production staff of the senior play. This club creates a greater interest in dramatics among the students.

The courtly airs of "Victoria Regina" were recreated at the annual Ye Merrie Players banquet held at the First Presbyterian Church, May 13. Toasts were based on scenes from the play. A program consisting of several scenes from the play and various other numbers was presented.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

"Honor Society, none can surpass thee in worthy ideals toward which we aim." This expresses the feeling of the National Honor Society members. These members make up fifteen percent of the graduating class. Their membership is based on scholarship, leadership, character, and service. They are chosen by the faculty members.

At the induction service, March 22, in west hall, Miss Starr, Miss Turney, Mr. Bohyer, and Mr. Bain explained the four virtues of the society. The symbol is a torch and a keystone.

Miss Isabel Freer was faculty advisor and Miss Lucile Foreman was secretary.

The student council is composed of one representative from each home room. Mr. K. H. Marshall is the sponsor of the council. The members are subject to the president's call at any time.

From time to time throughout the year, this group finds itself confronted with problems relating to fellow students. One of the greatest problems met by the council this year was the problem of too many absences from school. They sponsored a contest in the home rooms to overcome this difficulty.

STUDENT COUNCIL

MEMBERS:

Roy Abel, Robert Baker, Robert Bartlett, Roland Beech, William Burgener, Warren Callahan, James Diehl, Wilma Ehrick, Mahlon Gast, Carl Hall, John Houghton, Robert Jay, Clyde Kimbel, John Lawrence, Donna Lewis, Weldon Metz, Tom Mullet, Pauline Parish, Warren Rowley, Clyde Shearer, Jean Shirk, Marjory Shrock, Lloyd Strawser, Robert Thiabaut, Helen Uncapher, Ben Wiant, Mildred Young.

Inter Nos, sponsored by Miss Mabel Turney, is an honorary Latin club. The membership is made up of third and fourth year Latin students who receive a grade of A or B for a six weeks period.

This club creates an interest in classical studies beyond the regular classroom work by preparing interesting programs concerning classical literature and songs.

The meetings were held once each six weeks at the homes of the members. May 26, Inter Nos and Le Petit Salon joined to have a hamburg fry.

LE PETIT SALON

Le Petit Salon is an honorary club for second year French students having a grade of A or B for a six weeks period.

The meetings were held once each six weeks at the home of one of the members. They were conducted entirely in French. Short French plays were presented and songs were sung with the lyrics in French as part of the programs.

May 26, Le Petit Salon and Inter Nos combined for a hamburg fry at McKinley Park. Miss Isabel Freer and Miss Ruth Starr are the sponsors.

MEMBERS:

KINESIAN CLUB

Those senior girls who wish to take senior gym work may belong to the Kinesian Club. This year, the organization under the direction of Miss McAfee was divided into three groups which met second, third, and fourth periods each Wednesday morning in the gymnasium.

The first half of the year was spent playing volley ball and the last half preparing May-pole dances for the "May Day" demonstration which took place May 21 at the stadium.

The Kinesian Club gave a tea for the Hard-ing faculty members in the early fall. In May, the Kinesian Club and Tironian Club combined for a sport dance.

The officers were: Jane Uncapher, president; Annabelle Leffler, vice-president; Martha Jane Murtaugh, secretary-treasurer.

All seniors receiving A or B in second year shorthand for a six weeks period are eligible for membership in the Tironian Club. The club is sponsored by Mr. Russell Dunlap.

The meetings are held once each six weeks at the homes of the members. Several dinners were held during the year.

The Tironian and Kinesian Clubs joined for a sport dance in May.

MEMBERS:

TIRONIAN CLUB

THE short, cold days of winter have been busily occupied with numerous and varied activities. These, of necessity, have been indoors, so, as the snow melts, the trees bud, and the tulips push through the ground, everyone longs to be outdoors in the warm Spring sunshine and enjoy the long evenings.

Roller skating and bicycling are again very popular with the students and roadsters with the tops down or an "antiquated" model with the top removed is the chief mode of transportation. Sports change with the season. From basketball, interests turn to track, baseball, bowling, and golf.

During the Spring, the school plays are produced. The production staffs and casts spend many long and weary hours preparing the plays. They are well repaid when the "first curtain" goes up and the audience remains fascinated during their performance.

Spring not only brings reminders of its presence in the flowers and trees but cameras are as numerous as any of these. Fellow students take "snaps" of classmates and the school as a permanent reminder of days that were filled with pleasant memories.

The seniors have been preparing for this Spring all during the Fall and Winter. This is the season that they have waited for but with its arrival they are not enthusiastic to leave their Alma Mater as they realize they are at the opening of a new life. No occasion will ever bring this class together as the Seniors of Harding High School, Class of 1937.

SENIOR HISTORY

IT was just four years ago that the seniors were rival freshman classes attending Edison, Central and Vernon Heights Junior High Schools. This year, as the graduating class of Harding High School, they received their diplomas at the Commencement on June 6.

The extra curricular activities during the freshman year included Girl Reserves, Torch Club, Glee Club, Junior Red Cross, Dramatic Club and Athletics. Vernon freshmen presented the plays, "A Frock for Frances," "Early Plymouth Days," "The Low Boy Wins," and "The Case of Sophrания," under the direction of Miss Mayetta Anselment, Miss Una Ackley, and Mr. Alwyn Crane. Miss Zelma Howard and Miss Rosanna Crow presented the Freshman Class of Central in two one-act plays, "Keeping Kitty's Dates" and "Sauce for the Goslings."

As sophomores, the classes from Central and Vernon were united. For their leaders they selected Forrest Sharrock, president; Olen Flickinger, vice-president; Irene Klingle, secretary; and Hamilton Gast, treasurer. Edison's sophomore officers were: Glenn Winternute, president; Berdella Favorite, vice-president; Richard Fogle, secretary; and Dorothy Bailey, treasurer.

During the junior year a three-act play, "The Poor Nut," was given under the direction of Miss Annabelle Jenkins. The class was well represented in athletics and school clubs and hosts to the Senior Class at the annual Junior-Senior Prom.

Serving as officers at Harding for the juniors were: John Wilhelm, president; Olen Flickinger, vice-president; Irene Klingle, secretary; and Hamilton Gast, treasurer. Edison Juniors claimed Russell Arthur, president; Donald Quigley, vice-president; Robert McCombs, secretary; and Helen Jones, treasurer.

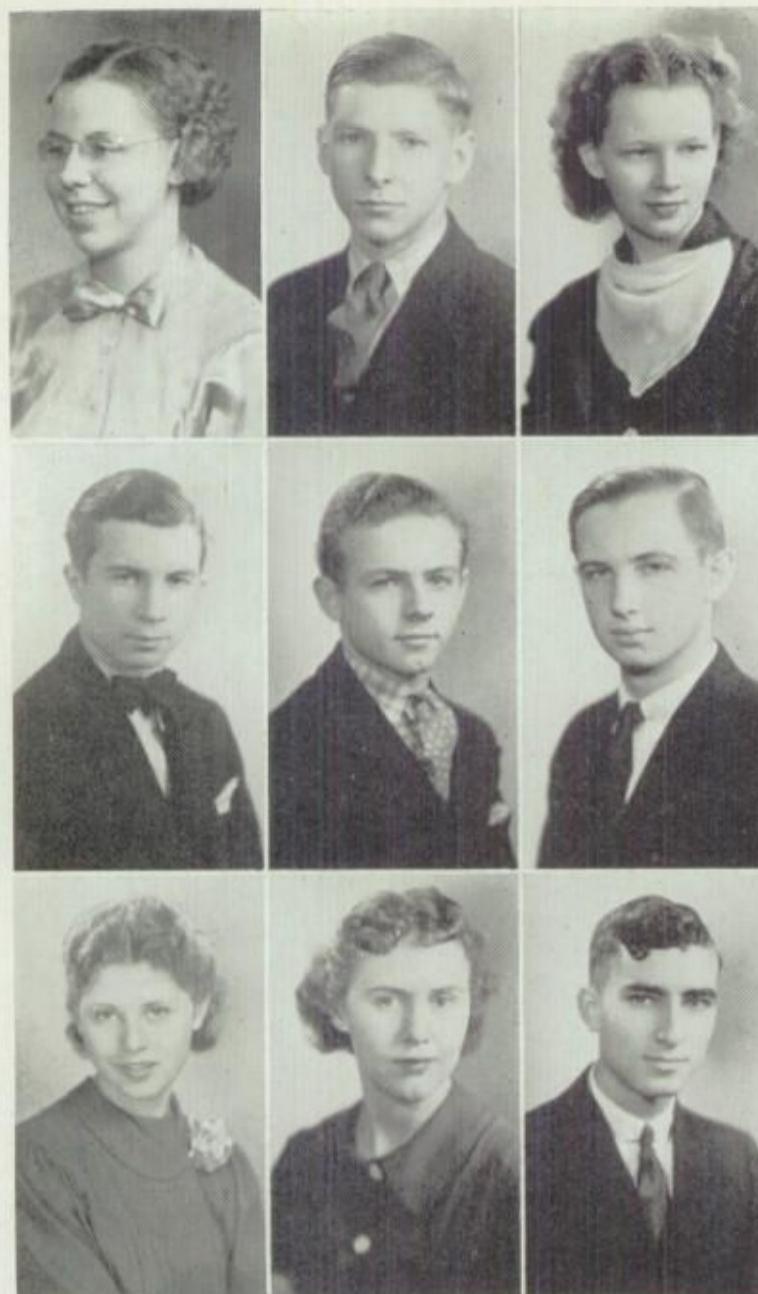

The senior officers were John Wilhelm, president; Olen Flickinger, vice-president; Irene Klingle, secretary; and Donald Quigley, treasurer.

Miss Foreman directed the senior play "Victoria Regina" which was presented on April 8 and 9. The senior sermon on May 30, the senior breakfast, class day and Commencement June 4 completed the four years of high school for the seniors.

SENIOR CLASS SONG

(Tune—The Stein Song)

1. Glory to old Harding days,
Each a bright spot shall be;
Brightening as the years go by,
Burned deeply in our memory.
2. When our darkest days shall come,
And we crave a bit of heaven,
Just fly back on memory's wings,
And live again fond '37.
3. We must leave, we must part,
The world sends a call, each must do his part;
We will strive, we will fight,
Let each face the goal with courageous heart.
4. Hearts to dare, hearts to do,
Inspired by noble faculty,
We will climb, we will lift
Harding High to her proud destiny.
5. Fortune, fill our every cup,
Bid happy voices ring;
Praises to old Harding High
The proudest class shall ever sing.
6. Fast the fleeting happy hours,
And victories o'er and o'er;
A thousand joys we've packed away
In recollection's finest store.

—Annabelle Leffler.

DRAMA

SENIOR PLAY

"Yes, Your Majesty," accompanied by a curtsey or a bow, became the natural actions of many seniors during the last few weeks of March. Not only the actors, but also the producers attained that "humble subject" attitude, while Eloise Coffman, Joan Boyd, and Richard Olewiler acquired regal airs.

"Victoria Regina" came to life April 8 and 9 under the skillful direction of Miss Lucile Foreman.

JUNIOR PLAY

February 18 and 19, a bad case of adolescence possessed Terry and George McIntyre, portrayed by Betty Roberts and Ben Wiant, respectively. Terry wondered if adolescence was catching.

The able direction of Miss Dorothy Hanson caused the junior class to really experience "Growing Pains." The first high heels, the first long trousers, and the first party proved to be not wholly pleasurable.
